

Disclaimer for Design Specification

The following design specification has been developed by FTM Corporation only for emergency use situations during the COVID-19 outbreak when FDA-cleared or NIOSH-approved N95 respirators are not available. This design specification is currently under development and has not been validated or tested for any use. It is being shared publicly by FTM Corporation for informational purposes for persons who may be interested in developing personal protective equipment to assist with the emergency response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Any downloading or use of this design specification shall be the sole responsibility of the user. The user shall be solely responsible for any and all testing, validation, production, sale, or distribution of products made wholly or in part based on the design specification. The user also shall be solely responsible for obtaining any licenses, permits, or other regulatory approvals required to engage in any activity using this design specification, and all other legal or regulatory compliance matters relating thereto, including but not limited to compliance with requirements of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, U.S. Federal Trade Commission, or any other applicable federal, state, local, or foreign regulatory agency or regulatory authority.

This design specification is provided "as is" and "with all faults." The user of this design specification should review and analyze the specification for its suitability and fitness for the user's intended purposes.

FTM Corporation makes no warranty whatsoever, whether express, implied, or statutory, with respect to this design specification, and FTM Corporation hereby expressly disclaims any and all warranties of any kind, including the warranties of condition, design, quality, suitability, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement, whether express or implied by law, course of dealing, course of performance, usage of trade or otherwise. FTM Corporation makes no representation or warranty that the use of this design specification will not infringe any patent or other proprietary right.

In no event shall FTM Corporation have any liability, including for any indirect damages of any kind, including lost profits, special, punitive or other incidental or consequential damages, whether based on contract, tort, product liability or any other theory of liability, arising from any use or exploitation of this design specification, or any loss, claim, damage or liability, of whatsoever kind or nature, which may arise from or in connection with any design, manufacturing, assembly, labeling, storage, distribution, or the use, handling or storage of any article developed based on this design specification.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.
